

How would I know that this is God?

For one, this question is for someone that has missed God before. Count it all joy, that you can still quest for God's grace in your life. Let's keep it biblical, Preach1 Day is a application for the scripture: Romans 15:5-6. God found a Saint who doesn't run after folly things, people or churches. His work here is to get 31000+ people with enough fear and love for God that they'll take God a 2 minute offering to glorify Him for a harmony of His power, placed in their lives.
